The Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Officiant and People together, all kneeling
Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Let us pray.

O God, because without you we are not able to please you, mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson

Exodus 14:19-31

The angel of God who was going before the Israelite army moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from in front of them and took its place behind them. It came between the army of Egypt and the army of Israel. And so the cloud was there with the darkness, and it lit up the night; one did not come near the other all night.

Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. The Lord drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and turned the sea into dry land; and the waters were divided. The Israelites went into the sea on dry ground, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left. The Egyptians pursued, and went into the sea after them, all of Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and chariot drivers. At the morning watch the Lord in the pillar of fire and cloud looked down upon the Egyptian army, and threw the Egyptian army into panic. He clogged their chariot wheels so that they turned with difficulty. The Egyptians said, "Let us flee from the Israelites, for the Lord is fighting for them against Egypt."

Then the Lord said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and chariot drivers." So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea returned to its normal depth. As the Egyptians fled before it, the Lord tossed the Egyptians into the sea. The waters returned and covered the chariots and the chariot drivers, the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; not one of them remained. But the Israelites walked on dry ground through the sea, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left.

Thus the Lord saved Israel that day from the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. Israel saw the great work that the Lord did against the Egyptians. So the people feared the Lord and believed in the Lord and in his servant Moses.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

The Psalm Appointed: Psalm 114

In exitu Israel

- 1 Hallelujah!
When Israel came out of Egypt, *
the house of Jacob from a people of strange speech,
- 2 Judah became God's sanctuary *
and Israel his dominion.
- 3 The sea beheld it and fled; *
Jordan turned and went back.
- 4 The mountains skipped like rams, *
and the little hills like young sheep.
- 5 What ailed you, O sea, that you fled? *
O Jordan, that you turned back?
- 6 You mountains, that you skipped like rams? *
you little hills like young sheep?
- 7 Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord, *
at the presence of the God of Jacob,
- 8 Who turned the hard rock into a pool of water *
and flint-stone into a flowing spring.

The Second Lesson:

Romans 14:1-12

Welcome those who are weak in faith, but not for the purpose of quarreling over opinions. Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables. Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgment on those who eat; for God has welcomed them. Who are you to pass judgment on servants of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand.

Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds. Those who observe the day, observe it in honor of the Lord. Also those who eat, eat in honor of the Lord, since they give thanks to God; while those who abstain, abstain in honor of the Lord and give thanks to God.

We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Why do you pass judgment on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. For it is written,

"As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me,
and every tongue shall give praise to God."

So then, each of us will be accountable to God.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

1 O bless the Lord, my soul! His grace to thee pro - claim!
 2 O bless the Lord, my soul! His mer - cies bear in mind!
 3 He will not al - ways chide; he will with pa - tience wait;
 4 He par - dons all thy sins, pro - longs thy fee - ble breath;
 5 He clothes thee with his love, up - holds thee with his truth;

1 And all that is with - in me join to bless his ho - ly Name!
 2 For - get not all his ben - e - fits! The Lord to thee is kind.
 3 his wrath is ev - er slow to rise and rea - dy to a - bate.
 4 he heal - eth thine in - fir - mi - ties and ran - soms thee from death.
 5 and like the ea - gle he re - news the vi - gor of thy youth.

The Gospel

Matthew 18:21-35

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord and Savior
 Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Peter came and said to Jesus, “Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?” Jesus said to him, “Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times.

“For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him; and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made. So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.’ And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, ‘Pay what you owe.’ Then his fellow slave fell down and pleaded with him, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you.’ But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt. When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. Then his lord summoned him and said to him, ‘You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?’

Brief Announcements

Accept, O Lord, our thanks and praise for all that you have done for us. We thank you for the splendor of the whole creation, for the beauty of this world, for the wonder of life, and for the mystery of love.

We thank you for the blessing of family and friends, and for the loving care which surrounds us on every side.

We thank you for setting us at tasks which demand our best efforts, and for leading us to accomplishments which satisfy and delight us.

We thank you also for those disappointments and failures that lead us to acknowledge our dependence on you alone.

Above all, we thank you for your Son Jesus Christ; for the truth of his Word and the example of his life; for his steadfast obedience, by which he overcame temptation; for his dying, through which he overcame death; and for his rising to life again, in which we are raised to the life of your kingdom.

Grant us the gift of your Spirit, that we may know Christ and make him known; and through him, at all times and in all places, may give thanks to you in all things. Amen.

Updates on Worship at Redeemer

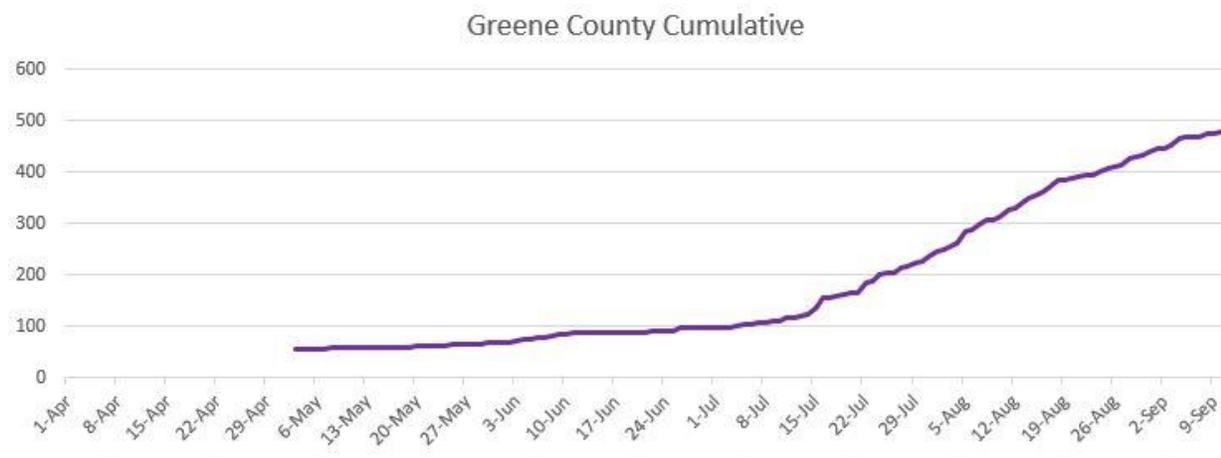

There are several things to keep you abreast of:

- Bishop Wright announced earlier this week that the diocese is now allowing outdoor gatherings of 50 or less individuals on church property (masked, six feet apart, no singing). Our vestry will be taking this up this week, along with setting and approving protocols for “Pilgrimages” (visiting the sanctuary at a designated time for private worship), “Communion” (where the priest consecrates and consumes bread and wine at the altar on behalf of the congregation – those at home may have their own bread and wine, which would be blessed separately), as well as outdoor gatherings for worship, use of bathrooms, etc.
- The Audio-Video Equipment – well, this has been a long and winding journey, and it is not completely resolved yet! The new camera has been installed, and it is wonderful. The audio equipment has been delayed in coming together, and we found in testing it out last week that the “ambient microphone” (used for capturing the organ music and the responses of the congregation) is not going to be adequate. We will be acquiring and testing new equipment soon, and hopefully we will be able to stream/record with this wonderful new technology!

- Updates on the coronavirus statistics (for wonky folks like me!). There is an odd downward pitch this week, due to having two days in a row without testing being done (outside of hospitals). Nevertheless, the downward trend continues to be encouraging:

[Updated through and including September 11, 2020] These numbers come from the CDC and Georgia Dept. of Health. I began tracking the New Case Number for Georgia April 1. The Seven-Day Average is a helpful way of gauging the trend of new cases, as it smooths out the sometimes-erratic graph line that Daily New Cases typically has.*

[Updated through and including September 11, 2020] Here is the Greene County Cumulative Case graph, from May 3 to present. Definitely some flattening going on! Keep up the good and loving work!

Soup and Sandwich Saturday

Beginning in September, Jenny Moore has taken the lead for our Soup and Sandwich Saturday ministry. We are most grateful for the incredible work that Elizabeth Hassell has done in getting this project off and running. Elizabeth has been an inspiring and tireless leader in the first year of this program's life, and she will be continuing on as a faithful participant! Thank you!

The next Soup and Sandwich Saturday is coming up September 26. Because of generous donations, we already have sandwich makings, but we do need a couple of soup-makers. Homemade cookies are also welcome additions to box lunches. If you would like to provide something or come and help the day of, please contact Jenny Moore. 770-363-5188 or jldmoore@mindspring.com

We wear masks and gloves and our guests pick up from an outside table.

Prayer List and Prayers of the People

Just a gentle reminder that if you requested someone to be on the Prayer List and/or the Prayers of the People, and they no longer require that prayerful attention, please let us know. As a general rule, individual names stay on the Prayers of the People for four weeks unless we hear otherwise, and then they rotate off. Thank you!

Yoga

The Redeemer Yogis continue to convene via Zoom each Monday at 1:00 p.m. Please make note of the revised schedule with specific forms of yoga woven throughout each month. Listed below are classes for the remainder of August and September.

September 14, 28: Basic Yoga Level One: asana practice as we have been doing with emphasis on building strength, balance and flexibility over time.

September 7: Chair Yoga: Chair Yoga is for anyone at all, but especially appropriate for those with limited mobility, recent minor injuries, or just for a more supported practice based in seated stretching poses. This will be a 45 minute practice, so a bit shorter than our usual one hour.

September 21: Restorative/Gentle Yoga: Restorative Yoga is just as the name implies! A slower sequence of poses with full range of motion using more supportive props and longer holds.

Any questions, please contact Cathy Crosby at c.crosby@mac.com or 770-294-1399.

Centering Prayer

Our Centering Prayer group is now viewing the video series by Thomas Keating entitled, "The Spiritual Journey." These are wonderful teachings about what he calls, "the human condition", and how contemplative prayer/meditation leads us to a deeper relationship with our God.

The Redeemer Centering Prayer group meets twice a week: 2:30 p.m. every Monday, and on Thursdays at 1:30 p.m. Do join us for one or both of these weekly sessions. Contemplative prayer is especially helpful in these uncertain times. All are welcome to join us.

Amazon Smiles Reminder

While we are mostly grounded with this pandemic, we might find ourselves doing more shopping online. Please don't forget to register for (if you have not already done so) and utilize Amazon Smiles.

"Smiles" is the philanthropic division of Amazon. The Church of the Redeemer is listed among the organizations participating in Amazon Smiles. This means that when you select Redeemer as the organization you wish to support, Redeemer will receive ½ of all your Amazon purchases. Signing up is this easy:

1. Go to <http://smile.amazon.com>
2. If you are not already logged in, you will be asked to log in to your Amazon account.
3. You will then be asked to select a charitable organization. Where it says "Pick your own charitable organization", type in "30642".
4. Scroll to the bottom of the first page, and select "next." About halfway down that second page you will see, "Church of the Redeemer". Hit the "select" button.
5. A pop-up message will appear, reminding you that the contribution to the church only happens when you shop through Amazon Smiles.
6. That's it! One half of one percent of your Amazon purchases will be donated to Redeemer.

This is a quick and easy way to give financially to our church by doing what you are going to do anyway: shop! Thanks!

Christine

Reaching Out

Please keep in mind of the ongoing economic toll of this pandemic upon our community. Your assistance is so needed. Thank you for your generous participation. Because the economic impact of this pandemic will likely last for many months to come, let us continue to find ways of supporting this important ministry in Greensboro.

THE ECW FOOD-AND-PAPER-PRODUCTS DRIVE was a great success. It is hard to measure these things, but I am aware of at least four trunk-loads of food that were taken to the Food Pantry, and a nice supply of paper goods were delivered to the Circle of Love. Both communities are very grateful for your show of love and support.

CIRCLE OF LOVE: Our quilting ministry has delivered 34 (THIRTY-FOUR!) quilts to the Circle of Love's women and children residents, and three more are in the works. This is the ongoing work of our Redeemer Quilters, who include Carolyn White, Carol Sinke, Katie Price, Kate Wiencek, Nancy Beckemeyer, Martha Cochran, and Lucy Ogletree. These quilts are crafted with love for those who are living with domestic violence and dislocation. What a beautiful reminder of God's enfolding embrace and love in the midst of unimaginable challenges!
